

PRESS RELEASE

Suspicious Vehicle / Person
February 7, 2019
NPD CN# 19-3074

On 2/7/19 at 2:30 PM Naugatuck police were dispatched to a report of a suspicious vehicle / suspicious person around the 500 block of North Church Street near Bradbury St.

Officers spoke with a 15 Year old female who advised that at about 2:15 PM she went into the driveway of her home to remove an item from a vehicle. Upon doing so a car operated by a unknown Hispanic male pulled in front of the driveway and called to her. The 15 year old female advised that the man asked her to “come into the vehicle and go for a ride with him over the bridge”. The 15 year old stated that she panicked and ran into her house and immediately alerted a family member who called police.

The 15 year old described the operator as a “Latin male, short black hair with no facial hair approximately in his mid 30’s”. She advised that the man appeared to have an average build and did not speak with an accent. She was unable to obtain a clothing description and did not notice any tattoos or other identifying features. The 15year old stated that she also observed what she believed to be a small child in the passenger seat.

The 15 year old female was unable to identify the vehicle make / model or registration but described the vehicle as a “newer style four door, black in color car that appeared to be clean looking”.

Naugatuck Police ask that anyone that may have information concerning this incident or information concerning the owner / operator of the vehicle involve contact the Naugatuck Police at 203-729-5221 or the NPD Confidential Tip Line at 203-720-1010.

NAUGATUCK POLICE DEPARTMENT
Administrative Division
203-729-5221